

The National Minimum Wage Increase—Your voice matters!

The National Minimum Wage Commission invited stakeholders to submit written representations concerning possible adjustments to the national minimum wage on or before 1 October 2021, before the Commission submits its annual report and recommendations to the Minister of Employment and Labour. The Minister will thereafter publish the report again, for further public commentary. No date has been set for this publication yet.

Printing SA aims to compile a meaningful written representations to the Commission on the National Minimum Wage, we request members to participate in a short survey for this purpose on or before 30 September 2021.

It is therefore important for Printing SA to get your input to determine the capacity and ability of member companies whether they can afford any possible increases to the minimum wage.

Have Your Say — Take a quick 2-minute survey and submit!

For any enquiries send email to kntanzi@printingsa.org

Read more: Employment and Labour calls for comments