

Imprint Act – Have Your Say!

Dear Printing SA Members

The Department of Home Affairs requested Printing SA to administer the Imprint Act in 1993. The Act requires that any printer of printed matter affixes a legible notice containing the words Printed by . . . followed by his full and correct name and the full and correct address at which he conducts his business of printing or an abbreviation of his name as registered with Printing SA.

Printing SA is in the process of investigating the relevance of the Act and whether to continue to administer it on behalf of Department of Home Affairs. We therefore request your feedback which will assist us in determining the way forward.

Please click here to answer a 2 min survey which will assist us to consolidate the industries feedback in determining the Act's relevance.

All responses to reach Printing SA on or before 12 October 2021. For any questions/ comments send your email to kntanzi@printingsa.org

- Click here to read Imprint Act explained